

Appendix 6

Aerial surveys conducted over much of the Danish waters during winter (January/February) 2004 and during summer (July/August) 2006. These surveys are part of the national Danish NOVANA monitoring programme. Below are also maps of the three aerial surveys conducted in 2007. The tracklines are indicated with grey lines and the harbour porpoise observations are shown with red dots.

